Praise and Thanksgiving to God
For Our Adult Initiation Candidates
And the Support of Our Parish Community!

Guided by the Holy Spirit, our candidates preparing for full initiation continue to learn and grow in the Christian life. The next milestone on their journey is the celebration of the Rite of Calling to Continuing Conversion on March 9th at the 11:30am Mass. – a time for our parish family to affirm and celebrate their willingness and readiness to receive the Sacraments.

The care of the parish family for our candidates is noticed and appreciated!

- ❖ You provide encouragement through your greetings, smiles, and affirmations.
- ❖ You are a living example of a life in Christ by your prayer and acts of service.
- ❖ You model full and faithful participation in the Liturgy and Sacraments.
- ❖ You serve as witnesses to the joy, faith, and care shared in community.

May our parish family, with Rachel, Raeanne, Shane, William, and Thomas, fully live the penitential and reflective spirit of the Lenten season, so that all our hearts are prepared for the celebration of the Paschal Mystery as one.

This Week's Facts of Our Faith

Q. When was the Redeemer promised to mankind?

A. The Redeemer was first promised to mankind in the Garden of Paradise, and often afterward through Abraham and his descendants, the patriarchs, and through numerous prophets.

Q. Who were the prophets?

A. The prophets were inspired men to whom God revealed the future, that they might with absolute certainty make it known to the people.

Q. What did the prophets foretell concerning the Redeemer?

A. The prophets, taken together, foretold so accurately all the circumstances of the birth, life, death, resurrection and glory of the Redeemer that no one who carefully studied their writings could fail to recognize Him when He came.

he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me.”

Lent begins in just 10 days.
Let's not wait. Let's get our hearts ready!

Attention Children of the Parish

In just 10 days Lent begins. Let's be generous. Lent is a special time of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal to you how you can best pray, fast, and give alms during this Lent. Be sure to sit still and listen for the answer. May God bless you!
