The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has launched a website with resources to support those who are experiencing mental health struggles and those who love them. The website offers links to find Catholic clinicians, local crisis response phone numbers and ministries that can assist with recovery and healing. In addition, there are tools to help parishes, schools and institutions cultivate a deeper awareness of and responsiveness to these realities, suffered by so many. ## VACATION WITH JESUS THIS SUMMER!

This photo of our Lord made me smile and I hope it does the same for you!
 It reminded me of how my life was always different in the summer.
 We didn't have a usual routine, in fact it was a very busy time for us.
 My daughter played travel softball. Every weekend we went somewhere different every weekend.
 One of the biggest challenges, I faced as a parent was keeping Holy the Sabbath day. Getting to Mass no matter where we went.
 Overtime, it became the ultimate challenge for us to not only find a church but to find a Mass that fit into the game schedule! LOL! By God's grace we always found one and we were so blessed to see so many beautiful parishes. It was AWESOME!

The easiest way to find a Mass near you wherever summer takes you is by this website:

<https://masstimes.org>

If you are sick and can't make it to Mass, go to our FB <https://www.facebook.com/StJohnTheEvangelistChurch/> or this is a good site:

<https://www.watchthemass.com/>

Remember to ask St. Raphael and St. Christopher for their special protection as they are the Patron Saints of Travelers and Motorists

May God bless YOU and your FAMILIES ABUNDANTLY!

Dear Father/Monsignor,

Thank you for participating in CRS Rice Bowl this Lent and for your generous contribution. Rice Bowl reminds all of us how inter-connected we are. The suffering in one corner of the globe has a profound impact on all of us. Through Rice Bowl, we learn how our global brothers and sisters overcome hardships, like hunger and malnutrition and how our actions on their behalf have the power to change lives!

Although not all Rice Bowl donations are in, this year's collection looks like another very strong one and I am most grateful that you extended the call to solidarity to your parishioners again. Rice Bowl will touch over 160 million people in over 100 countries. What an amazing impact the Catholic community has worldwide! This Lent, we learned how CRS Rice Bowl will touch the lives of people in Uganda, El Salvador and Indonesia. It also directly impacts those who struggle to put healthy food on the table right here in Philadelphia and the surrounding counties. 25 % of the Rice Bowl donations stay right here and enable Nutritional Development Services to purchase food for area food cupboards and soup kitchens.

Again, thank you for encouraging your parish community to make CRS Rice Bowl a part of your Parish Lenten journey. With a shared spirit of solidarity, we can continue to live Jesus' call to feed the hungry. Blessings to you and your Parish community!

Gratefully,

 Anne H. Ayella
 CRS Diocesan Director

Special thanks, Fr. Monahan to you + the good people of St. John the Evangelist Parish for your wonderful support!

248. Q. How do the priests exercise this power of changing bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ?

A. The priests exercise this power of changing bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ through the words of Consecration in the Mass, which are the words of Christ: “This is My Body; this is my Blood.”

Attention Children of the Parish

On Monday, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Birth of Saint John the Baptist. John is the one who prepared the way of the Lord, baptized Jesus in the Jordan, and was beheaded for speaking the truth about God’s plan for marriage.

There are only three birthdays we celebrate in the Church. Draw a line from the person’s name to their birthday. Ask Mom and Dad to help, if needed.
