This weekend we welcome Sister Anila, who is speaking to us on behalf of her order and the Pontifical Mission Society.

Sr. Anila Christi is the Provincial Superior of the Congregation of the Daughters of Mary, in southern India.

Sr. Anila and the apostolate of this Congregation serves destitute, mentally ill women who are found on the streets of Tamil Nadu, India. The majority of the women are put on trains from the north of India, and when they arrive in Tamil Nadu, in the extreme south, they have no resources and nowhere to turn. Many have been victims of abuse and most have been close to starvation. Sr. Anila and other Daughters of Mary regularly walk through the streets of Tamil Nadu to find these women. The women are taken to the group home where they are bathed, given clean clothes, fed, evaluated by a doctor, and supplied with medicine. At present, there are 87 women living at the home. It costs $25 per woman, per month, to provide food, clothing, medicine, and shelter. The annual cost to operate the home is $24,000. "We can share the Gospel and care for these women, helping them find hope and new life in Christ," said Sr. Anila.

As the women improve in their health and begin to feel at home, some are able to help with cleaning chores and work, such as making candles. The women enjoy singing and join in the prayers of the Sisters. If they have sufficiently recovered in their mental health, those who wish may become members of the Catholic Church.

Your support helps missionaries like Sr. Anila to evangelize in the slums and destitute areas of India and to share the love of Christ with all. Please support this worthy cause!

Virtue of the Month

Courtesy: Being thoughtful of others.

Family Faith Activity of the Month

Each day pray, "Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, save us and the whole world."

This Week's Facts of our Faith

255. Q. Does he who receives Communion in mortal sin receive the Body and Blood of Christ?

A. He who receives Communion in mortal sin receives the Body and Blood of Christ, but does not receive His grace, and he commits a great sacrilege.

256. Q. Is it enough to be free from mortal sin to receive plentifully the graces of Holy Communion?

A. To receive plentifully the graces of Holy Communion it is not enough to be free from mortal sin, but we should be free from all affection to venial sin, and should make acts of faith, hope, and love.
